Spring is around the corner and sometimes that leads to trips to Disney

- If you are headed to Florida over the Spring Break Season, here are just a few tips to help get you through your vacation:
- 1) Have a plan. Seriously. Know where you're going and how you're going to get there
 - 2) Make a list of must do items. Prioritize the attractions you want to see and figure out how you are going to accomplish them. Such as using daily or individual lightning lane, virtual queue, etc. Anything else can be done between your must dos
 - 3) Be prepared to pivot. If park hopping, you can park hop at any time. Water parks are always a great add on, in addition to your resort pool. Don't forget you can always visit Disney Springs as well
 - 4) We can only imagine that Genie + will be at a higher than normal price. Budget for this if you plan on buying it for your park days. Look at the app ahead of time to see what rides qualify for daily and individual lightning lanes
 - 5) Consider shows to fill in your park days. Eat the snacks. Take in the views and (our favorite) people watch! Check showtimes in advance. If you do it right you can save a lot of time by using shows to fill in the gaps between waits
 - 6) Pack your Patience Pants and have a great time - you're in Disney!

Where is Joe?

Check back here each month for Joe's adventures!

@Kitkat82 took Joe on a ski trip to Colorado! I couldn't help but think of these movie quotes that just seemed to fit.

The Rocky Mountains, CO

"Don't just fly...SOAR!" - Dumbo
This was no small trip for Joe! He landed in the Rockies!

Vail, Colorado

Joe got lessons from Goofy... as Goofy (head stuck in a boot) is hanging from a cliff...
"Skiing is quite simple, once you get the hang of it!"

"To infinity...and BEYOND!" - Buzz
Joe didn't know where he was going at this point, but he was a willing participant.

Remember to post your IG pics using #joecoconut and it might just show up in the next newsletter.

"Goodbye Splash, Hello Tiana!"

Gather 'round y'all, it's time to bid adieu to ol' Splash Mountain and give a big ol' "Well, haaaaaay there!" to Tiana's Bayou Adventure!

Better get in line now! Book your airfare, buy your tickets, grab Joe and book your resort now! In case you didn't know, Ellis is already in line and camping out with a blow up couch, that he got from Monte, in Magic Kingdom (beignets for breakfast, lunch and supper) He has been ready for months now and you should be too. Quick! Click here to book!

Anywho... I digress. Blue skies and sunshine are guaranteed to welcome us to this old/new attraction this summer. We have already seen the introduction of beignets in Magic Kingdom so it's getting close!

Now, listen up folks, Splash Mountain, bless its heart, has been splish-splashing its way into our hearts for years. I was sooooo sad to see it go. (IYKYK). But it's time for a change, y'all! So, grab your gumbo and get ready to parade on over to Tiana's Bayou Adventure, where the water's just as wet, but the sass is a little sweeter.

Say "so long" to Br'er Rabbit and "hey now" to Tiana and her jazzy friends. Get ready to groove to the rhythm of the bayou as you float down the river, dodging gators and singing frogs along the way. And don't worry, there's still plenty of splashing to be had – just watch out for those fireflies! I hear Ray is something else! If you take a peek at the top of the new crown you will see 2 teenie stars on top. One is for Ray and one is for his sweetie, Evangeline. Gotta love those hidden details.

You know I love those.

So, farewell, Splash Mountain! We have missed your zippie yoo-dah spirit, but it's time to embrace the new and let Tiana shine like the true princess she is. Get ready to put on your finest crown and join us in welcoming Tiana's Bayou Adventure to the Magic Kingdom!

Let's make some new memories, y'all!

Cool your heels, Rover. Hold your horses, or your fries! Take a chill pill. Whatever you do, cool down your phone with this nifty gadget.

The Florida sun does not play around when it comes to causing your phone to overheat. This cools your phone so you can keep on keeping on.
