Let's Talk Emotes!

Customized live streams add a personal touch to the laughter-filled experience that Royce's live streams. Whether it's a parky-dash-to-the-parade-tiny-Royce (with tiny backpack and Merrills) or a friendly face that becomes an inside joke among our community, these custom emotes become instant symbols of humor and camaraderie within our group. With each playful gesture (Copiche) or exaggerated reaction (There It Is!), our emote designers delight in crafting our own brand of humor, turning Royce's live streams into virtual comedy clubs where creativity knows no bounds. We have so many new peeps in our lives that I thought it might be time to do some 'splaining, so here goes!

It's rare for Royce to engage with folks on the skyliner but on this particular day it just seemed right. The couple next to him decided they wanted a burger, so when they disembarked, he offered a friendly, "enjoy your burger." Nice right? The emote came from the next bunch of kiddos riding who were very talkative and having a blast. As they left the skyliner, and for no good reason (as they never mentioned a burger), Royce offers a snarky, "Enjoy your burger!" Well you can imagine the derailing of the chat at this point! Watch it HERE

Barb is the perfect example of "Never grow up!" She thoroughly enjoyed her first experience on Flight of Passage. You can experience the ride with her in this replay HERE!

Do you ever wish you could go back to Disney as an adult and relive those core memories you had as a child? Kenny did just that. Loudly yelling "DROP IT" on Big Thunder Mountain. I think a little bit of Kenny lives in all of us. Catch the replay HERE.

Stanley is the name of this plant held captive in the Living With the Land attraction but you only get to see his personality if you take the "Behind the Seeds" tour. When he is afraid or shaken, his leaves close up. When he is left alone, he opens up. No one likes a crowd. Not even Stanley. Let him go! Let him go! Watch it HERE

This is a CLASSIC. One day while standing in line for GOG, the doors didn't open as they usually would. We ended up waiting a couple HOURS before they opened. This guy right here, who we now call Tie-Dye Mickey, waited for 90% of the time and decided to leave just BEFORE the doors opened and AFTER pacing and laying full out on the floor. Replay lasting in the jump point.

There are some people who would rather watch paint dry than be in Disney. Then there are those of us who would love to be sitting IN Disney JUST to watch paint dry. Royce brought the paint, and we watched it dry together. Watch the replay HERE

Using a corkboard to display pins you collect on your journeys is like creating a colorful mosaic of cherished memories and characters. Each pin tells its own story, transforming the board into a whimsical tapestry that captures the magic of Disney as well as all your adventures!
